OUT OF THE ..... BLUE !!

Each year brings us new knowledge, friends, and experiences. Students come and go, each touching the lives of their friends and teachers in a special way.

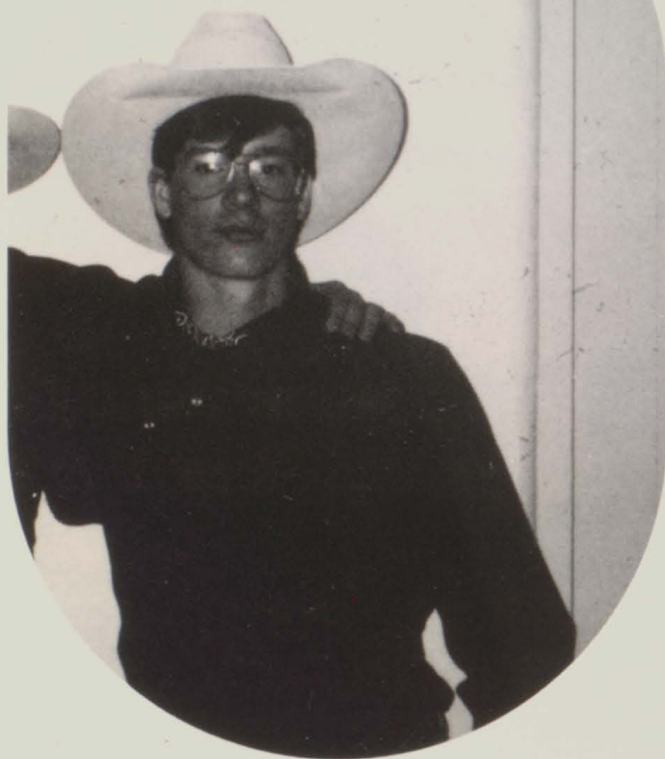

Everyone here at N. C. is very unique, having a vast amount of personalities. OUT OF THE BLUE we have all been brought together to grow in Christ and to develop some very special friendships.

DEDICATION

We would like to dedicate the 1991-92 yearbook in loving memory of Corey Lee Leisey

True

Blue !!

1992 has finally arrived. How do you describe this senior class? Small, opinionated, close, influential, and fun. What you see is what you get, because there's not much that we don't know about each other. The class of '92 has always been the smallest class in high school, but that has always been more of a blessing than a drawback. We come from a wide variety of backgrounds but we have come together like no other class in school. In this way, the class of 92 is "TRUE BLUE".

Friendship. This word can be heard many times throughout our high school years. But what exactly is friendship? This can be defined differently by every person, because no friendship is exactly the same. To some, friendship means being able to share thoughts and feelings, but it may also be as simple as helping out with a tough assignment. However we can all agree that a friend is someone to treasure forever.

Living in the dorm can be a real adventure, and this year was no exception. This year the dorms were exceptionally close ... especially when being snowed in for the weekend. The girls also grew stronger throughout the year by having an evening prayer time together each night in the hall. But even though the dorms can be fun ... some people experience homesickness. That can really make a person miserable. Beating the blues of being away from home can usually be accomplished by a smile or encouraging word from a fellow dormer. It's these strong friendships that can make the week seem shorter for the homesick dormer.

"Do You Get The Blues?"

- "Yes, the first night was the worst because I was scared of my roommate."
- "Not really, because my brother was here."
- "I'm always homesick because I can't express my thoughts in English."
- "I don't remember. It's been a long time..Too long!!"
- "A little, because I missed doing things with my family."
- "No, because I like to be away from my parents so I can be myself."
- "When I first came I was lonely because I didn't know anyone, but I'm not now because I have a roommate who's always here."
- "I don't miss my family, I miss my own home and environment."

A half century ago, Japan launched it's surprise attack on Pearl Harbor, and the world hasn't been the same since. Adolf Hitler had a plausible chance of conquering Europe and perhaps the Soviet Union also. The Japanese had little chance of winning in an all-out war with the United States; so with German support, on Dec. 7, 1941 at 7:58 am, the Japanese launched their air raid on the shores of Pearl Harbor. More than 1,000 American servicemen sacrificed their lives for our freedom in this battle alone. This is known as the moment that changed Americans from a nation of provincial innocents to a nation that would often have to bear the burdens of rescuing that world.

Jack Kevorkian, 63, a retired pathologist from Michigan, has been dubbed Dr. Death because he has aided three women in committing suicide. Kevorkian first came to the attention of the authorities in Lansing, Mich. last year when he helped an Alzheimer's patient kill herself by hooking her up to a suicide machine he invented. After he was charged with murder, his case was dismissed from court because Michigan has no law against assisted suicide. However, Kevorkian was barred from helping people commit suicide in Oakland County. In October he called the police to Oakland County Cabin where he had helped 2 women commit suicide. The county prosecutor's office is investigating their deaths.

In August of 1991 the Soviet Union became vulnerable to possibly one of the most life changing coups of our time. The coup - headed by former interior Minister Boris Yeltsin - attempted to overthrow then leader of the U.S.S.R., Mikhail Gorbachev and the government under his rule. This whole overthrow came about because a select group of communists felt that Gorbachev was becoming too liberal of a leader. Gorbachev was detained, or held prisoner, in his own house during the coup. Meanwhile, Pres. Boris Yeltsin was taking charge and wisely and boldly leading the U.S.S.R. through this catastrophe. As a result the coup failed and many of the instigators took their own lives. Boris Yeltsin was anointed the country's hero, and economic reforms and political changes are still in the midst of being made.

When Clarence Thomas was nominated for the position of U. S. Supreme Court Judge, he couldn't have imagined the road ahead of him. Soon after the nomination was submitted, a former business partner of Thomas, Anita Hill, accused Thomas of sexual harassment charges. Thomas denied the charge, and as a result was subjected to a grueling 102 day investigation and trial. This is twice as long as any other investigation has taken for a nominated Supreme Court Judge. After 102 days, Judge Clarence Thomas was found innocent of the alleged charge and now serves on the Supreme Court of the United States.

Everyday students are involved in numerous classroom activities. Besides being involved in these activities, students usually find themselves wrapped up in many extra-curricular events as well. From choir to speech and student council, these activities are all beneficial and provide many new learning experiences. As well as being fun, these activities can be stressful, but the hard work does eventually pay off, just as long as you don't get ... Blue in the Face!!

The student council obviously does a number of helpful things for this school. But there are also a lot of things that people don't know about the student council and their meetings. For instance, obviously most of their time is devoted to making decisions about school projects, and voting on issues at hand .... but they do take time off to sample World's Finest Chocolate, watch each other eat, argue about whose mother packs the worst lunch, sample World's Finest Chocolate.

You may be wondering what student council is like from the eyes of a member ... I think planning fund raisers, homecoming and magazine sales are a lot of fun, but the real reward for our work will be the new basketball uniforms.

Mr. Hamilton ... daring to go where no man has gone before ... DRAMA!!!

Another productive Drama session!

DRAMA ... HHHMMMMM ... This year, drama was one incredible experience! Each of the five (yes, five) members learned something new about themselves and of course something new about our undescrivable coach, Mr. Hamilton! Touring churches and performing at banquets were some of the ministries the drama team did this year, (well, we performed when we remembered our lines!!). So to all of you fellow drama goers out there, whether you be green or purple, thanks for making drama an unforgettable experience!

Music Groups 1992

Every year NC sends contestants from the music department to contest in order to compete against other schools. Everyone spends lots of time and hard work so they can do their best when getting rated. Contest is a nerve racking experience, and contestants often feel very uneasy about the whole thing. But once it is through, the musicians can sit back knowing God has put their talents to good use and ministry. NC students have a message to sing about and that makes all the difference in NC's performance versus the performance of their competitors.

DEADLINES!DEADLINES!DEADLINES!

What are some things that make the yearbook crazy? Several things come to mind ... but since this page is already late..I'll make it short. Deadlines play an important role in getting the yearbook finished, sounds easy enough, but just ask the officers how it really is! Every year the staff goes absolutely crazy when it comes to deadlines ... this year was no exception. This usually means late nights at the computer, or late nights with Miss Lipke in the Home Ec room. Deadlines aren't the only things that get the staff frazzled ... blurred pictures, not enough pictures, or not having pictures at all can be pretty annoying. But besides being frazzled, the yearbook does manage to have time to have fun ... Believe it or not!!

(Just ask Heather about Blizzards and yearbook pins!!)

We've Got The Blues!!

*We've Got the Blues ... This can be taken negatively when used in reference to this year's sport season at N. C. If you look at it positively, it means a totally different thing. Even though our records didn't turn out so great, we learned valuable lessons in sportsmanship and school spirit. In this way we remained confident and always came out fighting. Through all this we've remembered not to get the blues..because We've Got the Blues!

FOOTBALL

The 1991 Eagles: Front row, L to R: Ben Merchant, Leon Clevenger, Eric Peterson, Andrew Musgrave, Brad Bremer, Elijah Johnson, Matt Hoff, Lonny Cooper, Zac Peirce, and Randy Dietz. Second row: Student Manager Danny Medbery, Ben Bossard, Ron Wells, Travis Stuhmer, Mike Johnson, Brett Medbery, Eric Prusa, Aaron Schweitzer, Tony Urwiller, and Jared Rogers. Third row: Student Manager Matt Medbery, Mark Tyler, Mickey Hunt, Jon Root, Dick Warner, Kent Rowe, Tim Dockweiler, Eric Anderson, Chris Rikli, and Kameron Klein. Back row: Seniors Dustin Millsap, Ed Medbery, Nathan Musgrave, Bruce Strong, Dee Jay Burton, and Head Coach Larry Schreiber. Not pictured: Assistant Coaches Lanny Feah and Mike Bremer.

Senior half-back Bruce Strong runs over yet another unfortunate Silver Creek defender.

Sophomore Tony Urwiller struggles to pick up the ball.

The 1991 football season was a disappointing one for most of the players as the team ended with a 1-8 record. It was a team with very few Seniors, so there were a lot of underclassmen who gained valuable experience playing varsity football. It often seemed as though the Eagles sustained more than a fair share of injuries, as five different quarterbacks went down with broken bones, and several other starters were lost to injuries throughout the year. But the season was definately not all bad. The coaches always stressed that there is more to winning than the final score, and that fact was evident in the attitudes of the players. Despite the dissapointments of the losses, the season ended on a high note with NC trashing Silver Creek 44-0. It was a good way to end the year and start off for next year.

Aaron Schweitzer drags down the receiver.

Seniors D J Burton and Nathan Musgrave team up to sack the quarterback.

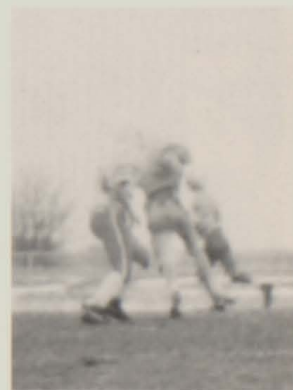

Dick Warner finds a hole and runs down the right sideline.

Several of the second-teamers discuss the last play from their front-row seats.

Dick Warner airs it out to Bruce on a screen pass.

Nate Musgrave runs down the Silver Creek Quarterback.

"Could someone please tell Ben Bossard who we're playing tonight?"

Mark Tyler executes the option play around the right side behind his blockers.

Nathan Musgrave hauls in the pass from Dick Warner on the goal line.

Mark Tyler, one of the many NC quarterbacks, drops back to pass and looks for his receivers.

Tony Urwiller drags a defender while heading for the end-zone.

Excitement runs high as the starting line-ups are announced for the Nebraska Christian Eagles.

SENIORS

The Senior Leadership: Dustin Millsap, Ed Medbery, Nathan Musgrave, Bruce Strong, and Dee Jay Burton.

Bruce gets outside and flies down the sidelines.

Senior Offensive End Nathan Musgrave grabs another catch.

Bruce Strong lunges for extra yards while his Senior teammates, Dee Jay Burton, Nathan Musgrave, and Eddie Medbery look on.

Experiencing a losing season is never easy, but it is especially hard to take if it's your last one. For most of this year's Senior team, it was probably the last chance to play football. But despite the hard times we had together I doubt if any of the Seniors regret going out for football. There were bright spots including awards earned by several players. Bruce Strong was voted first team all-conference linebacker, Nate Musgrave at second-team offensive end, and Mike Johnson, kicker.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

Left to right- Christy Urwiller, Neeli Grosch, Miley Jensen, Heather Jones, Christina Ackles, Heidi Hanquist, Sheri Reynolds, Julie Nelson, Angie Schweitzer, Joy McHargue, Bev Swartz, Verna Musgrave.

Volleyball this year was definately an experience we won't soon forget. (Although some of us may want to.) The Lady Eagles had a losing season of 0-14. We did however learn some very valuable lessons in team unity. The year started out rough in the area of teamwork, but by the end of the season, unfortunately too late, we were as close as a team could get.

One of the better times of the season.

Christina passes while Sheri looks on.

Seniors Take Control !!!

Sheri brought our team leadership as well as being a fun teammate.

Verna always had an encouraging word or smile for teammates.

The Senior athletes always prove to be an important part of a team, and this year the Senior volleyball girls proved this many many times and in many ways. Without their leadership qualities and help in practice the season wouldn't have been the same. They also provided encouragement and smiles when needed, and that's something that we all valued. Thanks for all your hard work and the examples you set. We will miss you next year!!

-Miley Jensen

Despite being unable to play varsity, Melanie proved to be a valuable leader on the JV team.

"Memories"

Most Memorable:

Sheri-freshmen games, getting tackled by Christina, and being proud even after a not so great season.

Melanie-driving around Cedar Rapids looking at the sights and going on the wrong side of the court during the game. Verna-suiting up for varsity my freshmen year and having to leave early for districts.

Junior Varsity

Isaiah 40:31 But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.

The Eagles prepare to face their opponents.

The 1991-92 Junior Varsity team proved to have a lot of talent and potential this year. The girls worked together well on the court as well as working together to perfect skills they learned. Although they didn't have a winning season, they learned some very valuable lessons that will be profitable to them in seasons to come.

Wade intimidates the competition, finishing the fast break with a basket and a yell.

The 1991-92 basketball season held a lot of excitement for the Eagles. There was hardly a game played all year that didn't come down to the final minutes, and the Eagles treated the fans to several nailbiting finishes. The Eagles had good depth this year and should continue to improve next year.

The "Twin Towers" from N. C. fight for yet another rebound.

Cheerleading has always been looked at as a "glory job" ... but there is definitely another side that people don't see. Hard work and lots of cooperation are necessary to plan pep-rallies, game cheers, and crowd builders for our team. This years girls have done an excellent job and have definitely caught the "SPIRIT BUG!!"

Charissa really gets into floor cheers!

Senior Sneak...

Pastor Neal Hughes gives a challenging message.

"Isn't there something in the school handbook about this kind of stuff?"

Phil, with his lovely assistant Melissa, demonstrates his imitation of the common hamper.

... A Trip To Remember

After these two, Loveland's slopes may never be the same.

As the 1991-92 school year come to an end, it's hard to imagine where time has gone. Hopefully after flipping through these pages, you've been able to recall some of the faces and special events that took place in this school year, and use this book as a reminder of the "bluest" year at NC. It is my sincere hope that the pictures and words contained in this yearbook won't merely be pictures and words to you, I hope they will be important memories of the experiences that influence your life, as well as those around you.

May brings us to the end of the school year for some, and the end of a high school career for others. The name of the graduation ceremony represents this well. Commencement means, not the end, but the beginning. And in this beginning students graduating from Nebraska Christian hold the power to change the world around for Christ. The senior class is gone after a simple turn of a tassel, but a new class will step up to take its place, and NC will continue to contribute to the future.

I have enjoyed serving as editor on the Reflector staff this year, and I hope this yearbook adequately captures the events of the 1991-1992 school year, and provides memories to all who read it.
